

Leipzig – always a good choice

Leipzig is “Hype-zig” – and not just recently. The lively, busy trading city magically attracted people in former times already. When travelers approached Leipzig by train from the south, Bayerischer Bahnhof was the first thing they saw. The station was built in 1842 and for 70 years, until 1912, it had been the train stop for all trains from ... well, Bavaria (Bayern), of course!

Four gate-like arches, each featuring a square tower at the side: The porticus is hard to overlook. The trade fair city presented itself confidently to the travelers in times past and the ensemble of Bayerischer Bahnhof is just as unique in Leipzig’s cityscape today. Being a striking piece of the city and transport history, the oldest preserved terminus station in the world is listed.

The new millennium marked the beginning of Bayerischer Bahnhof’s new, second life – as Gasthaus and Gosebrauerei (restaurant and Gose brewery) Bayerischer Bahnhof it provides a cozy escape to anyone who’s on the move in Leipzig and wants to get away from the daily hustle and bustle.

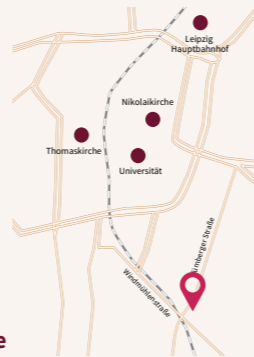

Next stop: genuine brewing and host culture

Turning each sip into a treat.

Brewing is our passion. This is why the brewery is our pride and heart. Bayerischer Bahnhof is famous for its Original Leipziger Gose. It used to be Leipzig's undisputed "queen of beers" which has been brewed in Leipzig since 1738. Today, the top-fermented beer specialty is a real insider's tip. It is brewed, poured and sold only here at Bayerischer Bahnhof. You fancy more unconventional types? Then you should try our other beer specialties: How about a "Schaffner" (conductor), our naturally cloudy Pils; a "Kuppler" (coupler), our wheat beer; or a "Heizer" (stoker), a strong dark beer?

Enter the craft beer class!

For those who love craft beers with a wide variety of flavors, the Dolden Mädel is the start of a unique journey of enjoyment. And for all those who find it difficult to decide on a starting point with 20 different craft beers on tap alone, there is a "beer time board" with five self-selected varieties at the beer counter. Delicious home-baked breads in a wide range of variations await you at the bread counter. Do you want more than just bread and beer? With our wine and cocktail menu, bar food, salads and delicious "main courses", you're sure to find what you're looking for. A fireplace corner and the separate "Track 1" room offer groups a particularly cozy atmosphere. Are you looking for a very special ambience for your event? The Dolden Mädel has space for 120-200 people - and we offer you everything you need for a successful event. Sounds inviting? A warm welcome!
